

SKI RESORT NEWS!

TAHOE X-C

Free Glide Wax Clinic with Swix Tech Rep Mark Nadell
This Saturday, December 17th, 2pm at Tahoe XC.

Learn how to choose the right glide wax for your skis. Learn how to properly iron, scrape, and brush without damaging your base material. This is a great clinic for anyone interested in having faster skis, which makes skiing more enjoyable.

Tahoe XC will be open Saturday from 12pm to 4pm.

Not for skiing just yet, but you can:

Pick up or purchase your 2011-12 season pass.

Turn in your skis for a pre-season hot wax or heat box.

Find a great gift in our retail shop for someone on your list. Subtle.

As part of the resort's $50 million renaissance, Squaw Valley welcomes a host of new dining experiences on-mountain and in The Village at Squaw Valley. With 10 new restaurants and eateries adding to the 32 total dining experiences at Squaw, there is something to suit every palate, including even the pickiest little eaters. Rocker@Squaw is opening in The Village with artistic tributes to Squaw's legendary athletes and an adventurous menu to match. On the mountain, Squaw is opening North America's first ski-in/ski-out Starbucks and a new café and market at the top of the resort's Funitel. Other new options range from gourmet cupcakes and gelato to creative sandwiches and dazzling new après ski hot spots. From sizzling new entrees and a seasonal chefs table to delectable new grab-and-go items – the food has never been better at Squaw Valley

Rocker@Squaw

The Village at Squaw Valley welcomes Rocker@Squaw – the valley's newest hotspot for delicious food, cold brews and signature drinks for groups of all sizes. Deemed “comfort with a kick,” Rocker @Squaw will serve up dishes like XXX Hot Wings, the Red Eye Burger with a fried egg, hot sauce and cheddar cheese, and the outrageous 5lb G.N.A.R Burger to be shared with a group or taken on as a challenge. Rocker@Squaw will also offer lighter and healthier options such as the ZLT (zucchini, lettuce and tomato) sandwich and the signature Tahoe salad. Click here to view full Rocker@Squaw menu.

Rocker@Squaw will host a public grand opening party on Friday, December 16 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Party goers at the grand opening can enjoy half-priced draft beers and half-priced appetizers. Rocker@Squaw will be open every day for lunch, après ski and dinner – as well as late night on weekends and holidays.

Squaw Valley Ski Patrol Presents the 19th Annual Snow Gods Ball – DEC 17

A benefit for avalanche education

Squaw Valley Ski Patrol is hosting the 20th Annual Snow Gods Ball on the evening of Saturday, December 17. Proceeds from the Snow Gods Ball allow Squaw Valley Ski Patrol to grant scholarships to community members for avalanche education. Open to the public, the Snow Gods Ball is set to take place at Bar One in Squaw Valley's Olympic House. The doors open at 8 p.m. and the music starts at 9 p.m. All party goers must be 21 or older to attend. This year's ball features live music with Love Fool, the region's favorite 90's cover band. The Snow Gods Ball raffle prizes include a Gold Season Pass to Squaw Valley and Alpine Meadows, a seat on a snowcat ski trip with Pacific Crest Snowcats, Armada skis, a guided ski trip with California Alpine Guides, gift certificates to Java Sushi in Truckee, avi gear from Ortovox and Backcountry Access and other great prizes and gift certificates donated by a list of incredible sponsors.
