

NEWS

Contractors Association of Truckee Tahoe

December 27, 2011

For Immediate Release

For more information, contact Pat Davison 530-550-9999

CATT Announces Annual Award Winners

The Contractors Association of Truckee Tahoe recently announced the winners of the 2011 CATT Annual Awards Competition. The winners were nominated by fellow members for superior craftsmanship, excellent customer service, innovative design, devotion to CATT and community, or other outstanding characteristics. 14 nominations were made in 5 “project” categories and 28 nominations were made in 6 “individual achievement” categories. Winners are:

Public Works Project of the Year

Truckee Bridge Street Improvements
Aspen Developers Corp.

Sustainable Building Methods Project of the Year

Dry Creek Court Residence
In House Builders

Commercial Project of the Year

Truckee River Winery
Ward-Young Architecture and Planning

Residential Remodel Project of the Year

Basque Lane Residence
Griggs Custom Homes, Inc.

Residential Project of the Year

Valhalla Drive Residence
J. Corda Construction and
Ward-Young Architecture and Planning

New Member of the Year

John Walterscheid
Royal Wholesale Electric

Volunteer of the Year

Paul Griggs
Griggs Custom Homes, Inc.

Professional of the Year

Julie Johnson-Holland
Interior Design by Julie Johnson-Holland

Supplier/Vendor of the Year

Marcio Decker
Home Concepts Design Resource Center

Sub-Contractor of the Year

Paul Johansen
Johansen Masonry, Inc.

Builder of the Year

Barry Lease
Incline Builders, Inc.

Questions about the competition, projects, or nominees should be sent to Pat Davison, CATT Executive Director, 530-550-9999, or pat@ca-tt.com

Photo ID of winners (L to R): Betty Scott for Marcio Decker (Home Concepts Design Resource Center), Julie Johnson-Holland (Interior Design by Julie Johnson-Holland), Paul Griggs (Griggs Custom Homes), CATT President Tillio Olcese kneeling in front, Jude Gavigan (In House Builders), Heather Griffin (Ward-Young Architecture and Planning), Joe Serpa (Aspen Developers Corp.), Joan deRyk Jones (Corda Construction), Mike Roberts (Corda Construction), Paul Johansen (Johansen Masonry), Barry Lease (Incline Builders). Not pictured is John Walterscheid (Royal Wholesale Electric). Photos of all winning projects are also available upon request.

##

CATT is a non-profit trade association representing the broad spectrum of design and building professionals and related suppliers in the greater Truckee/North Tahoe region. CATT was established in 1998 and has 284 members.