

As part of the resort's $50 million renaissance, Squaw Valley welcomes a host of new dining experiences on-mountain and in The Village at Squaw Valley. With 10 new restaurants and eateries adding to the 32 total dining experiences at Squaw, there is something to suit every palate, including even the pickiest little eaters. Rocker@Squaw is opening in The Village with artistic tributes to Squaw's legendary athletes and an adventurous menu to match. On the mountain, Squaw is opening North America's first ski-in/ski-out Starbucks and a new café and market at the top of the resort's Funitel. Other new options range from gourmet cupcakes and gelato to creative sandwiches and dazzling new après ski hot spots. From sizzling new entrees and a seasonal chefs table to delectable new grab-and-go items – the food has never been better at Squaw Valley
Rocker@Squaw

The Village at Squaw Valley welcomes Rocker@Squaw – the valley's newest hotspot for delicious food, cold brews and signature drinks for groups of all sizes. Deemed “comfort with a kick,” Rocker @Squaw will serve up dishes like Hot Wings, the Red Eye Burger with a fried egg, hot sauce and cheddar cheese, and the outrageous 5lb G.N.A.R Burger to be shared with a group or taken on as a challenge. Rocker@Squaw will also offer lighter and healthier options such as the ZLT (zucchini, lettuce and tomato) sandwich and the signature Tahoe salad. Click here to view full Rocker@Squaw menu.

Rocker@Squaw will host a public grand opening party on Friday, December 16 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Party goers at the grand opening can enjoy half-priced draft beers and half-priced appetizers. Rocker@Squaw will be open every day for lunch, après ski and dinner – as well as late night on weekends and holidays.
